Task 4, Algo 2:

The "sum" of a name means the ASCII sum of all the characters in it. It's meant to add some randomization to the output to make the generated name unique.

The program will automatically capitalize the first letter of both names if the user didn't.